Uniform Policy

We believe that uniforms help make life simpler. A standardized uniform allows a child to get by with a minimum of clothing. You have your every day wear and then a 'Sunday best' outfit for more formal occasions.

Socially, a uniform is a marvelous equalizer of status. It matters not whether you are the Earl of Snowdon or John Smith, son of the local green grocer, when you don that uniform. Uniformity rules. This allows a child to concentrate on school instead of other social factors such as dress. Below are the guidelines for uniforms. Please go through your closet and find pieces you might already have. You can find uniform pieces at Target, Gymboree, Kmart, Walmart, Old Navy and you can buy through www.frenchtoast.com.
